NILL WAIVE EXAMINATION.

IRS. ELIZABETH JACKSON'S CASE WAS SET FOR TO-DAY.

There Will Be No Preliminary Testimony, However-Dr. Goddard's Attorneys Will Renew Efforts for His Release.

The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, charged with complicity in the murder of her husband, Fred J. Jackson, who was shot by Dr. J. D. Goddard, will be called in Justice Krueger's court this after-noon at 2 o'clock. According to an understanding reached several days ago, Mrs. rectly to the grand jury when it meets in She is out on a $20,000 bond. with Dr. K. P. Jones and Attorney Henry Smith as sureties. This bond will be continued for her appearance before the grand Messrs, J. W. Beebe and F. W. Gifford. attorneys for Dr. Goddard, who was in-dicted for the murder, will present themattorneys for Dr. Goddard, who was indicted for the murder, will present themselves in the criminal court to-morrow morning, pursuant to the order of Judge Wefford and will offer bond in the sum of $20.00. which is the amount fixed by Judge Wofford two weeks ago. Judge Wofford subsequently refused to pass upon the qualifications of bondsmen until the hearing of the evidence against Mrs. Jackson. Since the announcement that Mrs. Jackson would waive a hearing Judge Wofford has refused to indicate what action he will take. When he refused to allow Goddard of the bond he gave as his reason that the arrest of Mrs. Jackson, which took place as soon as he had decided that Goddard should give ball, might bring out additional testimony against Goddard. The latter's attorneys suggested the possibility of Mrs.

Jackson having no hearing, but Judge Wofford announced positively that he would not pass on the matter of bondsmen
till he had heard the evidence against Mrs.
Jackson. Having overruled himself on one cocasion, it is only a matter of conjecture
as to what he will do to-morrow.

Judge Wofford decided that Goddard was entitled to give ball, on the testimony of only five witnesses, who swore to the mere facts attending the killing. No evidence as to motive was brought out.

CLARK ESTATE MUST PAY.

Judge Guinotte Allows a Claim for 8598 in Favor of an Eastern Coal Company.

Several cars of coal have been bothering Probate Judge Guinette for several weeks past, and not having any use for them these days he got rid of them yesterday by deciding that the estate of which Mrs. Jen-nic Clark is administratrix must pay for them, their value being a little short of

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company put in a claim against the Clark estate for $1,000 for coal bought by the Clark Coal Company. A long and tedious hearing took place, during which a wast mass of testimony was taken, tracing up each car from the time it left Pennsylvania till it reached Kansas City.

Cracked His Proboscis.

A. Navrion runs a restaurant on Missouri avenue between Wainut and Main streets. He has been in the habit of making the rounds of the commission houses early each morning and buying up the cracked engs for use in his restaurant. Yesterday micraing he went to Joseph Hamilin's commission house and when he found no cracked engs he made a slighting remark about the firm. Hot words followed and Hamilin ordered Navvion out of his place. Navrion stopped to give his opinion of Hamilin, when the latter struck him a telling blow on the point of the nose. Navrion repaired to Dr. O. W. Krueger's office, where it was found that instead of cracked nose from the commission man. He then swore out a warrant before Dr. Krueger, who is also a justice of the peace, for Hamilin's arrest. Hamilin pleaded guility to a charge of assault and paid his fine of $1 and costs without a murmur.

Revival of the Hay Press Suits.

A formal application for a rehearing of the celebrated case of the Kanass City Hay Press Company against the Devol-Livengood Manufacturing Company that was decided some weeks since in the United States circuit court of appeals in favor of the plaintiffs has been prepared and will be filed in the court at St. Paul in a few days. The case involves the validity and ownership of certain patents on hay presses that are of great value. The decision gave the victory to the plaintiffs and practically decided the defendants as guilty of infringement on the patents and hable to heavy damages.

Thinks the Move of the Consolidated Electric Light Company Nothing but Buncombe. The exclusive publication in The Journal rosterday of the reorganization of the Consolidated Electric Light and Power Company excited considerable comment yesterday in view of the possibility of a war between the two companies in the future. The officers of the Kansas City Electric Light Company, however, treat the competition of the new company lightly, and claim the movement is made solely for the purpose of compelling the Kansas City, Mo., company to buy the plant from the Kansas City, Kas., company. General Manager E. R. Weeks, of the Kansas City Electric Light Company, said yesterday.

"I think the only fight the Consolidated Electric Light Company, said yesterday." It think the only fight the Consolidated Electric Light said Power Company has is with its creditors. It has had a good deal of trouble with them. The fact is they want to unload their Kansas failure on Missouri. Although they are charging Kansas City, Kas. Sile per year per lamp for lighting, and we charge Kansas City, Mo., only file for a standard light, while theirs is enything but standard, they have still been unable to make a success. They have wented us to consolidate with them, but we efused to inflate our bonds or stock to the amount of the purchase price of their plant and make our Missouri patrons pay the delas and losses of the Kansas concern.

"This war talk is a chestnut. It has been revived at intervals for the past three years and after each spread they come to us to know if we are now ready to buy them out. If we should follow their suggestion and inflate our stock or bonds to take their plant at the valuation they have placed upon it, we would of course have more capital on which we would have to tax the people of Kansas City, Mo., because it has been clearly demonstrated that Kansas City, Kas., cannot be taxed for a sufficient amount to pay interest and dividends on the plant of the consolidated company. The talk at this time is simply for the purpose of inducing us to buy the plant, but we do not intend to water our stock and bonds in order to recoup the losses of resterday of the reorganization of the Con-solidated Electric Light and Power Com-

Drawing to a Successful Close

To-Morrow Is the Last Day

There has been wide appreciation of THE JOURNAL'S efforts to bestow a patriotic picture of rarest quality upon the homes of Kansas City. As we have stated before, WE ARE NOT IN THE PICTURE BUSINESS. We have simply let down the bars for one week, and that week ends to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. At that hour the offer we have made of the great picture,

"Birth of the American Flag"

will expire, and while we do not wish to disappoint a single JOURNAL reader, we positively will not accept orders after the hour named. There will be a rush at the closing hours, no doubt, so it will save you some is inconvenience if you will come to-day. We desire to thank the many people who have complimented our enterprise during the past few days. In this connection we desire to say that THE JOURNAL has always been a loyal supporter of the old flag, and we are glad to note that our constituency is composed of flagloving people.

Come to THE JOURNAL'S counting room to see samples. Kansas City, Kas., readers can see them at our offices in their city.

Orders from out of town must be mailed to-day and to-morrow. Select the style of frame you desire and add 5 cents extra for boxing. Inclose the amount to THE KANSAS CITY JOURNAL, stating the number of the frame desired, and the same will be sent to your address by EXPRESS, you paying the express charges. The styles of framed pictures are as follows:

No. 1-Florentine gold frame, medallion style, easel back. Size, 10x16. Price, 30 cents.

No. 2-Burnished bronze reeded frame, 2 inch molding, medallion style. Size, 12x18. Price, 30 cents. No. 3-One inch bronze frame, size 14x20, with 3 inch gold
